PEOPLE

JOSEPH R. ROYCE, Professor of Psychology and Director of the Centre for Advanced Study in Theoretical Psychology, recently presented two lectures in Calgary. On November 11, Dr. Royce addressed the Humanities Association of Canada on "The Encapsulated Man" and on November 12, he addressed a graduate student colloquium of the Department of Psychology at The University of Calgary.

A. T. ELDER, Professor and Associate Head of the Department of English, was elected Vice-President of the Johnson Society at its annual meeting in Eugene, Oregon, on October 26.

M. L. ROSS, Associate Professor of English, was elected President of the Western Literature Association in October at Colorado Springs, Colorado. He also attended the Rocky Mountain Modern Language Association meetings.

VATICAN MUSEUM DIRECTOR HERE

FRANCESCO RONCALLI DI MONTORIO, a director of the Vatican Museum in Rome, spoke at a public lecture in the Henry Marshall Tory Building December 9.

Dr. Roncalli, who is in charge of the Department of Etruscan and Italian Art at the Museum, is on a speaking tour of Canada, and has presented lectures at Montreal, Ottawa, Toronto, Hamilton, Winnipeg, Victoria, and Vancouver. Sponsored in Edmonton by the Department of Classics in co-operation with the Edmonton branch of the Dante Aligheri Association, he spoke on "The Vatican Museum, Five Centuries of Dialogue, Past and Present."

Dr. Roncalli has been a lecturer at the six-week course on Roman Archaeology and Civilization, held by the Department of Classics in Italy during the past two summers.

Born in Bergamo, Italy, in the foothills of the Italian Alps, Dr. Roncalli, a friend of the late Pope John XXIII, attended diplomatic schools. His father was at one time Italy's Ambassador to the United States. He graduated from the University of Rome and is one of the world's leading authorities on Etruscan society.

ELEVEN RECEIVE FELLOWSHIPS

The Canada Council has announced the names of the successful candidates in its annual competition for Post-Doctoral and Leave Fellowships in the social sciences and humanities. Post-doctoral Fellowships are granted to enable those who have recently earned Ph.D.'s to broaden their scholarly experience; Leave Fellowships are granted to university staff members on sabbatical leave, to enable them to engage in independent research or other forms of creative scholarship. 205 award-winners were chosen from 357 candidates.

Post-doctoral Fellowships are worth up to $8,000 for eight to 12 months. Leave Fellowships are worth up to $7,000 for associate and full professors and up to $5,000 for other award holders, with travel and research expenses where needed, for a maximum of one year.

Post-doctoral Fellowships awarded at The University of Alberta include: DAVID A. CODER, Assistant Professor of Philosophy, H. C. LU, Sessional Instructor in the Department of Educational Foundations, and JULIET MCMASTER, Assistant Professor of English.

Leave Fellowships were granted to BAHAR ABU-LABAN, Associate Professor of Sociology; ALAN L. BRYAN, Associate Professor of Anthropology; RORKE B. BRYAN, Assistant Professor of Geography; CHARLES W. HOBART, Professor of Sociology; RUSSEL S. MACARTHUR, Professor of Educational Psychology; GWYNN NETTLER, Professor of Sociology; ROGER A. SHINER, Assistant Professor of Philosophy; and WILLIAM C. WONDERS, Professor of Geography.

ENROLMENT FIGURES RELEASED

1967 full-time university and college enrolment was 12.3 per cent larger than in 1966, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reports. As of December 1, 1967, total enrolment was 261,207 in Canada's universities and colleges. The comparable figure for the preceding year was 232,672. The 1967 figure of 261,207 is larger by 26.9 per cent than the 1965-66 figure of 205,888.

Full-time graduate enrolment increased at a greater rate from 1966-67 to 1967-68 than did full-time undergraduate enrolment. Graduate enrolment increased by 22.7 per cent while undergraduate enrolment increased by 11.3 per cent. As has been the case for some years, the increase in full-time enrolment of women, 13.7 per cent, was higher than that for men, 11.6 per cent. Women accounted for 32.9 per cent of total full-time enrolment in 1967-68 in 1960-61 they represented 24.1 per cent of the total, while in 1955-56 the percentage was 20.9.
